DEDICATION

In this book we have endeavored to recapture a few of the happy hours of a year's activities at John R. Rogers.

With the hope that in years to come, the pictured stories of this year will give real pleasure to you by awakening memories of student life, we submit the 1936 "Treasure Chest" and dedicate it to the six young men and women and to Mr. Jinnett, their coach;—who, by their sincere efforts, have brought to our school for the first time, the honor of a triple championship in Debate.

LOYALTY MARCH

All hail the team tried and true
Who bear our colors in the fray;
They know our hearts
Are with them every single play.
Ours be the boast
That we will cheer them lose or win.
Men so true, our hearts to you,
In loyalty we pledge
To Rogers High!

IN MEMORIAM

June 29, 1918

March 22, 1936

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark
And may there be no sadness of farewell
When I embark,

For tho' from out our bourne of Time and Place,
The flood may bear me far
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the Bar.

—Tennyson

JANUARY CLASS

Four and one half years ago, in January 1932, one hundred and fourteen gawky, awe-struck boys and girls were ushered into the brand new John R. Rogers High School. This class had the honor of being the first to complete a full four years' course in the new building.

These Freshies soon ceased to be green, however, and settled down to make Rogers the best school in the city. They sponsored and took part in many varied activities; some were stars in the sports spotlight, some were dramatic stars, others won laurels for excellence in debate, journalism and music.

On January 21, 1936, at eight o'clock this group now ninety-six in number, led scholastically by Dorothy Ruark, valedictorian and Grace Walker, salutatorian, ended their four years at Rogers.

June 5, 1936 terminated the four year sojourn of 170 students at Rogers. Their record had been outstanding with aspirants in a good many of the fields which lead to success. In September 1932, two hundred and ten bewildered freshmen entered Rogers. It did not take them long, however, to make up their minds that their class should excel in many things.

The range of their activities has been wide, with individuals gaining honors in fields of sports, dramatics, art, scholarship, music and debate. The coveted position of Valedictorian was won by Frances Wilson and Helen Swain held the title of Salutatorian. Max Smith sailed the class ship of state through the stormy waters of the final semester, with Dick Wood as the co-pilot. Carl Putnam was elected to serve as secretary-treasurer, while the yells were led by Jim Carlson. The Student Council representative was Kenny Wallace.

The graduating class is leaving a high standard for following classes to use as their goal.

“The Ghost Train,” a mystery melodrama, was presented December 6. The orchestra under the direction of Glenn B. Starr, rendered the musical selections.

Arnold Ripley, whose ingenious brain and facile pen were responsible for the piece, took the vicinity of Rockford, Maine, for his locale and wove around the story of a phantom locomotive a thrilling and tense melodramatic plot.

Setting, lighting, and sound effects added much to the mystery and interest of the play. Marian Leavitt assisted J. L. Purdy in directing the production.

“Mr. Pim Passes By,” A. A. Milne’s comedy in three acts, was presented March 20, with the help of Glenn B. Starr and the school orchestra.

The eternal conflict between the old and the new provided the plot, while England’s peaceful countryside and the beautiful old English manor house of George Marden contributed to the theme. Elaborate scenery and furnishings added much to the effective atmosphere. J. L. Purdy directed, with the assistance of Glen Chambers.

JANUARY COMMENCEMENT

Following the example of previous graduating classes, the January class presented an original pageant, "Thirty Years After," reflecting the abilities and enthusiasm of the students making up the class.

The scene took place in 1966 and the cast portrayed the "Rogers of Tomorrow." Several scenes were enacted depicting each phase of school activities; and the many trials of these freshmen, who were the first to occupy the new building. The fantasy was concluded with the presentation of the diplomas.

J. M. Tewinkel directed the program with the assistance of Glenn B. Starr and the orchestra.

JUNE COMMENCEMENT

"What's Right With America" was the theme used by the June class for the commencement exercises. A play expressing the viewpoints of a politician, a homemaker, a minister, a doctor, a laborer, and a sub-deb showed what is wrong with America, then contrasted this with "What's Right With America." The play was written and produced in costume by the Special English class under the direction of J. M. Tewinkel.

SPORTS

COACH HENRY BENDELE

COACH OF CHAMPIONS

Henry Bendele was the power and inspiration behind the 1935 Rogers football team which fought its way to the coveted place of City and Pacific Northwest Champions. This was Mr. Bendele's first year as the Pirate coach.

He hails from Oklahoma but Washington really has greater claim on him because it was at Ballard High School in Seattle and Washington State College that he received his education. At W. S. C. he was an outstanding athlete; his sports career included four years each of football and baseball.

Not content with being a leader in sports, Mr. Bendele was an honor student as well, being a member of three honorary fraternities.

He was graduated in 1934 with high scholastic standings and took the position of head football coach at Rogers in the fall of 1935.

FOOTBALL CHAMPIONS

ROGERS 13: GONZAGA 7

In a thrilling, hard-fought game, Rogers opened the city series by trouncing Gonzaga 13 to 7 on the Pirate gridiron, September 27. The Bullpups drew first blood when Baker heaved a short pass to Derr, who stepped over the goal line.

Rogers' first touchdown came in the closing seconds of the first half. Poffenroth faded back and tossed a pass into the end zone. Again, in the fourth period, Poffenroth completed a pass to Brown for another tally.

ROGERS 0: NORTH CENTRAL 7

The Pirate "lightweights" suffered their only defeat of the season when they dropped a tough battle to North Central by the score of 7 to 0 on the home field, October 5.

A drizzle which started at half time kept the Buccaneers' aerial attack from clicking.

The much heavier Indians took advantage of the wet field and used straight line smashes which saw Louis Contos, N. C. fullback, go over for the only touchdown of the game.

ROGERS 18: LEWIS AND CLARK 14

Displaying a sensational aerial attack, the Rogers Pirates downed Lewis and Clark, 18 to 14, on the Tiger gridiron on October 11. Rogers counted two touchdowns early in the contest.

The tables were soon turned when the south-siders came back to score twice and kick both points to give them a two-point lead at half time. But the Tigers were unable to stop the Pirate passes. Poffenroth again shot a short pass to Tortorelli, who evaded all opponents and scored standing up.

First Row: McDavls, end; Potter, tackle; Usher, tackle; Craln, guard; Anderson, center; Suriano, guard; Balch, end.

Second Row: O'Grady, half; Tortorelli, half; Brown, full; Poffenroth, quarter.

First Row: Scott (Manager), Poffenroth, Coffman, O'Grady, Wollaston, Ansbury; Knowlton, Stephen, Braaten (Managers).

Second Row: Judge, Bays, Randolph, Crain, Bucholz, F. Akins, B. Akins, Tortorelli, Usher, Young, Balch.

Third Row: Diedrick, Holley, Oswald, D. McDavis, Bergen, Sweet, Pritchard, Suriano.

Fourth Row: Mr. Bendele (Coach), Ostness, R. McDavis, Brown, Potter, Torgerson, Simonson, McCulloch, McNamara, Dillon, Anderson, Miller, Liberty, Mr. Eisensohn (Assistant Coach).

ROGERS 13: GONZAGA 7

Duplicating the first Gonzaga battle, Rogers vanquished the Bullpups, 13 to 7, on the Gonzaga gridiron, October 25. A thrilling run by Sam Tortorelli was the sensation of the contest.

After the kickoff Gonzaga drove to the Pirate 20-yard line, but Tortorelli intercepted a pass by Derr and made a long run for a touchdown. A 21-yard run by Seeley accounted for Gonzaga's touchdown.

ROGERS 6: NORTH CENTRAL 0

Led by Abe Poffenroth, the flashy Pirate eleven gave the North Central Redskins a 6 to 0 beating at the Gonzaga stadium November 1. Bendele's men played their season's best game against the Indians and avenged their one defeat of the year.

In the second quarter the Buccaneers marched to the Indian five-yard line, where Brown crashed over. The Pirates allowed their foes to make no headway whatever, and played superior ball all afternoon. Poffenroth did some excellent open field running throughout the game.

ROGERS 2: LEWIS AND CLARK 0

Before this game was played Rogers had automatically received the city championship by Gonzaga's unexpected 13 to 0 win over North Central. The Pirate crew had to exert themselves to the utmost to stop a very persistent and powerful Lewis and Clark team, 2 to 0, on the home gridiron, November 23. The battle was fought on a muddy and slushy turf.

Rogers scored a safety in the first quarter when Schlicting, Tiger center, made a bad pass to Sam Grande and the ball rolled and skidded into the end zone. Bendele's men proved they were real "champs" by holding off their heavier opponents.

ROGERS 12: WEST VALLEY 6

Rogers started the football season under their new coach, Henry Bendele, by smashing out a 12 to 6 win over a strong West Valley team on the Rogers gridiron, September 12. Both of Rogers scores came on two beautifully aimed passes by Poffenroth to Wollaston and Balch. West Valley counted in the last few minutes of play when Schille, Eagle captain, packed the ball over.

ROGERS 12: LEWISTON 6

At the half-way mark in the city series the Pirates journeyed to Lewiston on October 18, where they defeated a hard fighting Lewiston eleven, 12 to 6. A pass from Poffenroth to Coffman, who went 35 yards to the Bengals' five-yard line, paved the way for the first Rogers score.

Poffenroth went over on the next play. In the third quarter Poffenroth slipped across again after faking a pass from the 10-yard stripe. The Bengals did not reach pay dirt until the last three minutes of play.

ROGERS 6: WASHINGTON 0

After the Pirates had captured the city championship, they accepted an invitation from Portland to combat Washington high school, champions of Rose City, on Thanksgiving day. Coach Bendele's determined eleven upset the old dope bucket by giving the Portland school a 6 to 0 licking.

A blocked punt paved the way for the only six points of the game. The ball bounded high into the air and Balch grabbed the oval and raced to the two-yard stripe before he was tackled by a Washingtonian. From this point on Rogers had to protect their lead until the final gun.

First Row: Miller, Simonson, McCulloch, Young, Randolph, Oswald, Wollaston.
Second Row: Coffman, Sweet, Pritchard, Liberty.

YELL KINGS AND PIRATE GIRLS

The Yell King, Gail Werner, and his able assistants, Noel Hosea, Don Carter, and Don Hughes, added much spirit and pep to the football games last fall. Their sincere enthusiasm paved the road to our victories. J. M. Tewinkel coached the yell leaders and aided them in their work.

The singing Pirate Girls in their colorful array also helped considerably to arouse the spirit of the student body. They presented many drills on the field which held the interest of hundreds of spectators. Miss Marion LeFevre and J. M. Tewinkel were directors.

The Pirate girls were: LaRayne Coulson, leader, Jerry Ambrose, Mary Brooks, Clara Burnice, Thelma Carson, Pearl Mary Copeland, Mary Dippel, Marialese Eller, Margaret Freeman, Ella Gorremans, Norma Hearn, Jane Hill, Leah Jaques, Rosina Johnson, Ona Kendall, Maxine McHarness, Maudie Mitchel, Opal Mors, Virginia Moser, Edwardeen Mustard, Alma Peterson, Lola Peterson, Mary Schemmel, Rose Via, Norma Waller, Frances Williamson, Patricia Williams, Eunice Wilson, Frances Wilson, Elsie Zerbst.

FRESHMEN FOOTBALL

A fine showing was made last fall despite the two lickings taken by the Pirate Babes. On October 2, the heavier N. C. frosh swept Rogers off their feet to the tune of 13-0 on their home field.

The younger Pirates played and lost to a far more experienced Bullpup eleven and came out on the losing end of a 6-0 victory for Gonzaga.

The scrappy little Pirates then journeyed to Hart field and fought to the finish coming out of the battle with a tie 7-7.

FRESHMEN BASKETBALL

Despite the fact that the "Baby Buccaneers" lost their opening basketball game to the North Central "Papooses" their game developed into a series of wins from that game on.

The frosh defeated the Lewis and Clark "Kittens" by a score of 23 to 20, and finished their season by giving the Gonzaga frosh a beating, 23-8. They also gave Central Valley a trouncing to the tune of 15 to 5.

Those who earned their numerals during a season of high scores were: Albert Akins, Del Brown, Jack Carter, Walt Lindgren, Frank Langell, John Osso, Ted Oster, George Perry, Art True, and Charles Wakeley. Henry Bendele is coach.

SPRING SPORTS QUEENS

Myrtle Harthold was crowned queen of Spring Sports at a special convocation on April 22, by Don Baleh, track man and Bill Sadesk, baseball man. Yvonne Mountain and Roxie Ralph were princesses. Little Peggy Purdy was the crown bearer and M. J. Benjamin presented candy to the winner and all contestants.

The Spring Sports contest was sponsored by the "R" club to promote ticket sales. Fifteen organizations selected queen candidates, who, with the support of their clubs and managers sold the tickets.

In addition to the winners the following queens competed: Lucille Huntley, French; June Carlson, Cosmie; Lelia Jones, Harding Debate; Lola Peterson, Home Economics; Alma Peterson, Four Star; Hava Long, Art; Norma Hearn, Junior Dramatic; Rose Bodey, German; Margaret Levos, Spanish; Bessie Brown, G. A. C.; LaRayne Coulson, "R;" Freeda Domke, Math.

The 11A team, winners in this year's volleyball tournament, got off to a dynamic start by defeating the 12B team with a score of 14 to 11. In all games following this they were victorious, with the exception of two, a tie game with the 11B team, and a surprising game with the sophomore team, which ended with a final score of 16 to 5, the champions the losers. The Senior B team, with 11 victories, one tie and two losses, were runners-up.

Bessie Browne was manager of the tournament, with fellow members of the G. A. C. assisting. Miss Mabel Perkins is coach.

First Row: Huntley, Ambrose, Hunt, Buhrer (Captain), Jaques, Hoffman, E. Wilson.

First Row: Allen, Schemmel, Wilson, Schindler, Brown, Hunt, Huntley, Mustard.
Second Row: Miss Perkins (Coach), Valsvig, Foster, Johnson, Lenz, Lyberger, Hearn, Mott, Helle, Frazier.

Roxie: I got a beautiful parchment diploma from the cooking college today, and I've cooked this for you. Now guess what it is.

Mick: (trying omelet) The diploma!

SOCIETY NOTE FROM NEWMAN

Irene Whiting says that when she sees those great big handsome life guards she just naturally gets that sinking feeling.

Jackie Rutherford: I am tired of going to school. I am going to earn my living by my wits.

Myrtle Harthold: Fine, half a living is better than none.

Helen Hickok: (in Chemistry class) The answer is right on the tip of my tongue.

Walter Peer: Better not swallow it. It's arsenic.

"Now if you have that in your head," said Mr. Doolittle, who had just explained a theorem to one of his students in geometry, "you have it all in a nut shell."

All Graduates Placed

Several times this year Northwestern was able to advertise "All Graduates Placed." Employment service is free.

Our Graduates Hold Their Jobs

So thorough is the instruction at Northwestern because of its expert and experienced teachers, that business men know that the best trained stenographers and bookkeepers come from Northwestern.

Individual Instruction

Individual instruction is the keynote at Northwestern and accounts to a large degree for the unusual success of its graduates. Eighteen sections in Shorthand and five instructors in Bookkeeping and Machines offer individual attention to students. Every student proceeds as fast as he is able, unhampered by others . . . in this, the best Business College building in Washington.

Duck Wollaston: That can't be. You don't look like either of them.

Dean: Yes, I was walking down the street and someone called to me, "Watch where you're going, Dizzy."

Charles Wakeley: How can you afford to take so many girls to such expensive restaurants?

Johnny Osso: Easy! Just before we go in I ask each girl if she hasn't been putting on weight.

"I'll move heaven and earth to play golf well," said Willie Johnson, having scattered the turf in all directions.

"Well," answered Bob Foley. "You've only heaven to tackle now."

Victor Rotondo claims he has the worst luck. He bought a two-pants suit and burnt a hole in the coat.

Addie Glayzer: I want a dress to put on around the house.

Rah! rah! rah! the Saphomore cried
And hugged himself with glee,
For he had crammed and crammed and crammed,
And passed Geometry.

Doris Culverwell was complaining just before Christmas of the way Dou was treating her.

"Speaking of Christmas presents, why don't you give him the mitten," said Vera Pressley.

"It isn't a mitten he needs, it's a pair of socks, he's got cold feet."

Royal Cutler: Who gave you that black eye,
Gene?

Gene Coe: No one. I was looking through a knuthole in the fence at a baseball game and got sunburned.

Bradford Ellingson: (coming home from a dance) 'Rings on my fingers' are all right, but it's the 'helles on my toes' that gets me.

Stan Marks: I want to know where I stand in your affections.

Miss Herbert: Esther, will you tell me what a conjunction is, and compose a sentence containing one?

Esther McCulloch (after reflection): A conjunction is a word connecting anything, such as 'The horse is hitched to the fence by his halter.' 'Halter' is a conjunction, because it connects the horse and the fence.

Q. If you were in a canoe and the wheels came off, why is a duck?

A. Ice cream hasn't any bones either.

Mrs. Frissell: (at dinner) Will you pass the nuts, dear?

Mr. Frissell: (absent mindedly) Yes, I suppose so, but there are quite a few who ought to be flunked.

Bobbie Birge: Grandpa, are you growing taller all the time?

Grandpa: No, my boy. Why do you ask?

Bobbie: 'Cause the top of your head is poking through your hair.

Leonard Thompson was giving a party. He received a message from an out of town guest saying, "Wash out on line cannot come," to which he replied, "Come anyway, borrow a shirt."

Kenneth Bonner: Would you be so inconsiderate as to punish a person for something he didn't do?

Mr. Hubbard: No, certainly not.

Ken: Well, I didn't write my theme.

GRAYSON'S
W. 523 RIVERSIDE AVE.

Jane Allison: Did you notice how my voice filled the room?

Melvin Schroeder: Yes, I did. We had to leave the room to make room for it.

▼ ▼ ▼ ▼
Edna Wise: Was Caesar a strong man?

Miss Le Fevre: No not especially.

Edna: Well, it says here he pitched his tent across the river.

▼ ▼ ▼ ▼
Mrs. Benjamin: Why is it that there are not so many train wrecks as auto wrecks?

Bob Burkhardt: I guess the firemen don't hug the engineers.

▼ ▼ ▼ ▼
Ralph Brown: Mom, this spaghetti reminds me of football.

Mrs. Brown: How, son?

Ralph: Always ten more yards to go.

▼ ▼ ▼ ▼
"It's all over the school," cried Bob Scott as he dashed into the study hall.

Harry Faggetter: What's all over the school?

Bob Scott: The roof, hot shot, the roof.

▼ ▼ ▼ ▼
"Are you a clock watcher?" asked the business man of Al Johnston who had just applied for a job.

"No!" replied Al. "I'm a bell listener."

Bob Weaver: This dining room set goes back to Louis the Fourteenth.

Susie the Soph: (unimpressed) That's nothing;
our whole living room set goes back to Sears and Roebuck the 15th.

▼ ▼ ▼ ▼
Selma Thornton: Did you ever read the story of Jason and the Golden Fleas?

Ann Hunt: Yes, I simply itch for such stories.

▼ ▼ ▼ ▼
Miss Budwin: Dorothy, give me the definition of horizon.

Dorothy Pruitt: The horizon is where the earth and the sky meet, only they don't.

▼ ▼ ▼ ▼
Gordon Causton: How do you make antifreeze?

Ray Munyan: Put her in the ice-box.

▼ ▼ ▼ ▼
Earl Weed: Do you use toothpaste?

Eddie Judge: No, my teeth aren't loose.

DURING REGISTRATION

Miss LeFevre: We offer an excellent course in foreign relations.

Howard Coffman: Not interested! All my folks live right here in the U. S.

DEDICATED TO KEN STANSBURY

"There, there little boy, don't cry. You will get your award in the end."

"I s'pose so. That is where I allus do get it."

Was the class in an uproar when the teacher entered the room and said: "Order, please," and then little Bobbie absently answered "Ham sandwich and a cup of coffee!"

Harry Mills: You attract girls like fly paper attracts flies.

Bob Zat: Yes, but the trouble is I'm not sticky enough to hold them.

"You're nothing but an ordinary rubbish collector!"

"So I gather."

Barber (to Willard Van Dusen): What'll you have, a haircut, or just the oil changed?
